What’s In a Name?
By Pastor Jim

Several years ago, Rev. Dr. Valerie Beth White Stultz came to Wadsworth UMC as my DS to preach and lead the Service of Holy Communion. When Valerie invited the people to come to the Table of the LORD, she asked them to tell her their middle name. I watched the faces of the congregation as they spoke their middle names as they received the bread and the cup. The moment was electric; there were smiles, tears, even sobs. People connected their given names to the LORD GOD who calls each of us by name: “Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine” (Isaiah 43:1).

What’s in a name? At baptism parents are asked, “What name shall be given to this child?” It is a powerful moment. The Winkler children were given names that are deeply significant to the family: Kathryn Lucinda, Joslyn Schubert, Nathaniel James. Then came the grandchildren: Elinor James, Vivienne Lucinda, Josephine June. I was named after my grandfather, Frederick Nelson Winkler, and my uncle, Dr. James Winkler. And Lynelle? I love the sound of her name! I only knew one other Lynelle, a wonderful and active teen in my youth group in Boston, MA. Lynelle is a name I treasure, the name of my beloved.

Our names matter. They were given to us. They represent who we are. They connect us with our families. They are spoken by our beloved. They identify us in the fellowship of the congregation. And most amazing of all, GOD calls us, knows us, loves us by name.

A group of professionals posed this question to a group of children: “What does love mean to you?” One of the answers stood out for me: Billy, age 4, said “When someone loves you, the way they say your name is different. You just know that your name is safe in their mouth.” That is profound!

Your name matters to me. I look forward to getting to know you by name – all that your name represents as a child of God, a follower of Jesus and a beloved member of your family and this congregation. You can help Lynelle and me get to know your names by repeating them often and even by addressing one another by name. And while you are at it, share the story of your middle name. We’ll be listening!

Back to Valerie. With deep, piercing pain we received word that Valerie passed away suddenly just following the close of annual conference. We ache with the loss of a beloved friend, mentor, colleague, and leader who was an inspiration to many. Our hearts break for her family. When we think of her name, Dr. Valerie Stultz will be remembered as one who was called to guide people of all ages to Christ through deep listening, informed teaching and passionate preaching. Her gift was to connect people with one another and with the LORD who knows us and calls us by name.

Thankful for the fellowship of God’s people near and far, Jim

“HANDS THAT SERVE”

By Debbie Diadiun

For 34 years, Alternaterm has served the needs of women who are struggling with the shock, worry and fear of an unexpected pregnancy. Located in an area near several abortion clinics that target the poor and African-American populations with focused advertising, Alternaterm helps balance the scales of social justice by offering free pregnancy tests, early ultrasounds and accurate medical information related to pregnancy.

If a woman who is scared and feeling trapped by the prospect of an unplanned pregnancy is shown that there IS a viable option to abortion that includes a caring community of caregivers and counselors, then she truly DOES have a choice.

In 2017 there were 92 babies born to Alternaterm clients. More than half (52) of those babies were born to women who came through the doors having determined that abortion was their best option. These women responded to the message of Christ’s love shared by the peer counselors and, instead of abortion, chose to receive the support and guidance offered at Alternaterm.

Alternaterm touches the lives of 40–50 families each month. The parenting classes offered at the center to both fathers and mothers, as well as the supportive and social services, can help to change the future of their families.

By sharing Christ’s love and care, this agency is making a difference in the lives of women and families in Greater Cleveland. It is able to keep its doors open only through the loving support of Christian individuals and churches in the area.
How you can help:

- You can make a cash donation this month in the offering baskets. Please designate “Alternaterm” on the memo line on your check or envelope.

- You can pick up one of the Alternaterm baby bottles at our display table, fill it with your loose change and return it to the church office this month or next.

- You can donate goods by placing them in the gray bins at any of the church entrances. (The most needed items are diaper bags, washcloths and hooded towels, packages of baby wipes, and baby toiletries such as baby wash, lotion, and powder.)

And finally, you can enjoy our delicious and popular egg strata breakfast on July 15. All proceeds will go to Alternaterm.

For more information, contact Debbie Diadiun at ndiadiun@aol.com or 440-729-3655.

Annual Conference Report

By Linnea Bubnow and Ted Diadiun

Those of us who have been fortunate to serve as delegates at our denomination’s five-day East Ohio Annual Conference at Hoover Auditorium in Lakeside always find it an enriching experience, filled with spiritual growth and a greater understanding of the operation, goals and mission of our church.

That mission is of course printed at the top of the bulletin we get every Sunday: “To make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.”

Each year the conference has an announced theme, conceived by Bishop Tracy S. Malone, addressing that goal. This year’s was, “CALLED: Bearing fruit that lasts.” It emphasized the importance of getting out of the church and our comfort zones to spread the word, we heard over and over from the bishop, pastors and other speakers.

Each annual conference is a mixture of prayer, music, inspiration and business. A typical day opens with singing, followed by a sermon from a pastor or visiting bishop invited by Bishop Malone. On the first day there is a full worship service with communion.

Following that are reports from various committees ranging from finance, benefits and other administrative matters to missions and highlights from the youth conference held the previous weekend. Interspersed will be training sessions, inspirational personal testimonies, and vigorous debate for and against social and political resolutions that various groups would like the conference to support. The annual conference features a time when the attendees prayerfully bid farewell to pastors and their spouses who are retiring or who have gone on to glory in the past year, and one in which it celebrates the fixing of new pastoral appointments for the coming year.

In the evenings, there are sessions to honor the retiring pastors in the conference; the incoming class of elders and deacons; and a Missions Fair that celebrates and explains the wide-ranging mission work done by churches and makes attendees aware of other mission possibilities. This year’s gathering was June 10-14, drawing 1,455 attendees (691 clergy, 764 laity) from churches throughout East Ohio, which encompasses the area east of a line drawn roughly from east of Toledo south to east of Columbus, then over toward the state line near Marietta.
The 2018 conference was particularly noteworthy for Mayfield Church because Monday night our Scott Wilson and his wife Babs were two of the many honored at the retirement celebration. They were part of the second-largest retiring class ever in East Ohio, as we bade farewell to 39 pastors. A busload of Mayfield folk, in addition to former parishioners from Pastor Scott’s previous churches, were on hand for the official celebration and the party afterwards at a cottage near Lakeside.

Then on Wednesday, appointments were set for our new pastor, Jim Winkler, and another year at Mayfield for Associate Pastor Jan Fillmore. Also notable was Bishop Malone’s annual Episcopal (state of the denomination) address given on the opening day of the conference, in which she outlined how the church is addressing the divisive LGBT issues of same-sex marriage and ordination of openly gay pastors.

She and other bishops served on a commission that was asked to study the situation and propose a way forward. The commission considered three possible approaches: a traditionalist plan, a one-church plan and a connectional plan, finally settling on what it called the one-church plan. The full Council of Bishops approved the idea and will in turn recommend it to a special session of the General Conference that will decide the issue in February.

The gist of it, said the bishop, is that “it removes restrictive language from the Book of Discipline, but it also adds assurances to pastors and conferences who, due to their theological convictions, cannot perform same-sex weddings or ordain self-avowed practicing homosexuals.”

Bishop Malone said that a final report with the details of the plan will be released this month, and welcomed all parishioners to participate in upcoming listening sessions that East Ohio will host in the fall (see page 9).

“I encourage you to still be in prayer and stay engaged in the conversation, and not let the exaggeration of our differences get in the way of our common mission together,” she said.

You can watch the entire address at http://www.eocumc.com/eoac18/livestreaming.html. Scroll down the list on the right of the page.

If anyone has questions about annual conference, we would be delighted to talk with you about them. We will be presenting a video with highlights from the conference at each service on July 15.
Our district superintendent, Rev. Sondra Snode, reminds us that "This coming year will be significant for our beloved United Methodist Church. I encourage you to join me in prayer as we approach the special General Conference in February 2019. Remember, Jesus is Lord yesterday, today and tomorrow. God is faithful, so let us not be anxious, but instead steadfast in prayer and devotion.

“As part of their preparation for General Conference, our East Ohio delegation will host Listening Posts in the fall. I encourage your church to participate in one of the following.”

July is the quietest month of the year for our schools ministry. Our students are out of school, enjoying camp or vacationing with their families. Our teachers (and some of our administrators) also are out of school, spending time with their families and resting up for the next academic year!

In August, during our “Hands That Serve” month, we’ll gear up for another fun year:

The Month of August:

We will collect school supplies for our students. Ohio’s 2018 tax-free weekend will be Friday, Aug. 3 through Sunday, Aug. 5. School supplies priced at $20 per item or less will be exempt from tax.

Most needed items are crayons (24 count), markers (washable, 8 count), two-pocket folders (blue, yellow, green and red), one-subject notebooks (blue, yellow, green and red), and inexpensive headphones (not ear buds; 40 total).
Sunday, Aug. 12: Holy Donut Day happens after each service in Fellowship Hall. Come hungry for some delicious Patterson donuts! We eat donuts for a holy (good) cause: our reading program at the schools.

Tuesday, Aug. 14: Meet-Your-Teacher and the PTA Ice Cream Social at Rowland School. The event happens from 6:30-8 PM. We will deliver the first batch of our school supplies this evening.

Sunday, Aug. 26: Our book/movie/CD giveaway happens after each service in Fellowship Hall. We are hoping that your donations will help fund a 2019 campership at a United Methodist camp for one of our students and a friend.

Have items for the giveaway? We’re still collecting! Please drop them off in my office.

Want to help sort the items (and have first dibs on them)? We’ll do that on Friday, Aug. 24, beginning at 10 AM. Let me know if you are interested and available.

See you next month!
Mayfield Church commissioned 8 new Stephen Ministers on May 27:

Becoming a Stephen Minister requires 50 hours of intensive training. The group met every Wednesday evening and two Saturdays from the beginning of February through May 22. Mayfield’s Stephen Leaders — Cyndi Nicholson, Joyce Gordon, Sally Matthews, Dave Welty, D’Juana Arendt, and Joy Clason plus former leaders Mardi Atkins and Kathleen Vernon — provided instruction following the curriculum from the Stephen Ministry series of St. Louis.

The new ministers join other current, active Stephen Ministers: Joyce Lambert, Kathy Rolla, Edna Johnson, Jim Vernon, and Susan DeLooze.

Having additional Stephen Ministers will enable our church to serve even more people in our church and the community. If you or someone you know would like more information about receiving the services of a Stephen Minister, contact the Stephen Ministry Referrals Coordinator, Joyce Gordon, at 216-570-3767 (leave a message) or joytgordon@gmail.com.
Our Home Visitation Team is a very special group that takes time to bring smiles, friendship and the church to our home-bound friends. Mayfield Church is blessed that these volunteers offer their gifts of hospitality, mercy, faith, and a few others. They also bring continuing news of all the doings at Mayfield. Some participate in the all-church studies, some share Yeah God moments, some receive an Upper Room devotional, and some receive Holy Communion and remember what Jesus did for us.

The Heartland kids also get involved with coloring the Communion pamphlet that Ruth Petche is holding above. She thanks the children for brightening her day with their artwork. The Heartland kids also make special holiday cards that are very well received. Thank you, Home Visitation Team Members!

If you are interested in helping, contact Cyndi at cyndi@mayfieldchurch.org

“Many, many thanks to all the people who have come to see me, also for the many cards I’ve received. This has made my change from home to assisted living a lot easier. You have all been so kind to me and I enjoy hearing what is happening at the church.

God Bless all of you,
Flossie Bluhm”
Are you interested in helping with VBS this year? Please contact Jess Martz at Jessica@mayfieldchurch.org for more info. We are looking for people with a variety of talents. If you’re an artist, skillful handy man, good at supervising, organized coordinator, or a strong leader, your skills are needed!

Heartland Summer Camp is in full swing! We are excited about being “Under the Big Top” this summer and for our special visitors who will be stopping by. Geauga Parks will be here twice for some exciting educational sessions and we will have a guest from Heinen’s stopping by to teach us about healthy snacks. We will also have our usual guests we love…a magician and an animal expert!!! Our summer is full of fun and adventure.

There are many different parts of a circus to make it work – just like God needs our different abilities to help Him set up His kingdom. We have learned about what goes into the Greatest Show on Earth and setting up the circus tents. We’ve learned and experienced the life of the Ringmaster. We’ve talked about the Ringmaster being the leader of the circus and about God being the Leader in our lives.

For the rest of the summer we will be learning about the following:

- July 2-6 Ladies & Gentlemen, Children of All Ages!
- July 9-13 Stop Clowning Around!
- July 16-20 Circus Animals
- July 23-27 Mayfield Church Vacation Bible School
- July 30-Aug. 3 Peanuts! Popcorn! Cotton Candy!
- Aug. 6-10 Three Ring Circus
- Aug. 13-17 All Out & Over

If you are interested in enrolling your child for our 2018-2019 fall preschool classes, please inquire as soon as possible. Some classes are filling up quickly! Please call the Heartland office at 440-729-4006 Ext. 116 or email heartland@mayfieldchurch.org.

Have a great summer!

This year’s theme was “Jesus is ____.” Students were challenged to fill in the blank of who they think Jesus is, based on His “I am” statements throughout the book of John. We brought 40 campers, 15 leaders, and 4 interns this year. Thank you to all who supported us financially, gave your time for the week, and lifted us up in prayer. It was an amazing time of growth, unity, fellowship, and fun!

I have had a request for the “Ten Things to Do Before You Die,” which was part of my June 10 message on Graduate Recognition Sunday.

As I mentioned in my message, these “10 things” came from a green-colored pamphlet I picked up about 15 years ago when I was in seminary.

The pamphlet is an excerpt from a speech given by the Rev. Dr. Richard A. Wing to the graduating class of 2001 at Washington and Jefferson College in Washington, Pennsylvania.

For many years, Wing was the senior pastor at First Community Church, a Congregational church, in Columbus.

He retired in 2017 and now preaches at Christian Church, a Disciples of Christ congregation in Scottsdale, Arizona.

For graduates, and for those who need to be reminded … here are Wing’s “10 Things to Do Before You Die,” with his commentary:

1. Make friends with death … become truly alive.

   You will die. I will die. We all will die. “Making friends with that fact is the very moment in which we start to live.”

2. Deal with your perfectionism … discard unrealistic expectations.

   If you don’t do this, “You may become discouraged, intolerant, and judgmental.”

3. Accept life as it is … find happiness.

   “Happiness is a function of accepting life as it is and accepting the world just the way it is. That is the first step in beginning to mold your life into what it can become.”

4. Know yourself … find your gifts.

   Who are you? This will take time to learn, but be patient. “Listen for your inner voice that is screaming to get out. It probably is the unique God-given gift planted in you that the world is waiting to receive.”
5. Look for interesting people … search nearby and also search far away.

“Think about the people you’ve spent time with, who are fully present to others. Are they not the kind of people who are the most interesting, the kind of people with whom you want to spend time?”

6. Do something that doesn’t make sense … pay attention.

“If you have a strong urge that compels you to do something, and it doesn’t make sense, be very aware, because God is probably in the vicinity of that nudging.”

7. Become a risk taker … dare to change direction.

The Great Wallenda, after a tragedy in which a family member died in a fall off the high wire, said, “To be up on the wire is life; everything else is simply waiting.” Wing says, “Find your wire and walk it.”

8. Rejoice in small victories … forget the big deals.

Mother Teresa said, “There are no big deals. There are just small things to be done with great love.” Wing says, “Never is God more praised and glorified than in the little things we do with great love.”

9. Write a letter … remember someone you can’t afford to forget.

“Think of a person or persons who helped make you who you are today. Write them a letter and thank them for that godly gift.”

10. Ignore the whispers … chase dreams.

Don’t let others define you. “The elderly don’t have regrets for what they did, but rather what they didn’t do. The only people who fear death are those with regrets.”
MISSION OUTREACH: ZIMBABWE

By Phil David, Mission Outreach Council

Several years ago, following the all-church study of “The Hole in Our Gospel,” our congregation set out to form a partnership with the Emsizini Secondary School in Zimbabwe.

You may recall that the master plan for the Emsizini mission site included a clinic. We are now ready to move forward with the clinic, and it is exciting for Mayfield to be a key partner in this effort.

The Kensington community, where our mission site is located, does not have local health care. Most residents visit the Sihlengeni Clinic, which is an 18-mile walk, round trip. For a consultation, the Sihlengeni Clinic charges children $1 and adults $2. Keep in mind that the vast majority of people live on less than $1 a day.

Because of the cost and long walk, expectant mothers often deliver their babies at home, and treatment of chronic illnesses such as HIV and tuberculosis is complicated. This leads to death from causes that could be managed if the community had a clinic.

With no clinic, our Emsizini students do not receive appropriate health care. Treatment often is delayed, or not available, in emergencies, like school sports injuries, and more critically, snakebites, which are a common problem, especially at night.

The proposed Emsizini Clinic will change the lives of the 7,025 residents of Kensington and nearby Spring Hill.

* Expectant mothers will no longer be forced into home deliveries, as the clinic will offer maternity care. Moms also will have adequate pre- and post-natal care.
* HIV and tuberculosis patients will have access to health care and prescription drugs. This will reduce the number of preventable deaths.
* Emergency care will be available for injuries including school sports injuries, snakebites, dog bites and rabies.

Our generous pledges to last year’s Vision Campaign will help support the building of the Emsizini Clinic. In addition to Mayfield, support also come from other United Methodist churches in the East Ohio Conference and Zimbabwean United Methodists from the local conference and Bethel UMC in Bulawayo.

Stay tuned … with God’s help and blessing, we hope to see this clinic become a reality in the coming years!
