Dear Mayfield Friends,

Eugene Peterson has been a favorite pastor and author for many years. You may recognize him as the author of A Long Obedience in the Same Direction, our summer worship series based on the Psalms of Ascent. He also wrote The Contemplative Pastor – a formative book for me – and a wonderful book on King David, Leap Over a Wall: Earthy Spirituality for Everyday Christians, among some 30 other books.

His translation of the entire Bible, known as The Message Bible, has helped me dramatically overcome my sense of “familiarity” with key biblical passages. Do you know what I mean? Bible passages become so familiar they almost lose their essential meaning. Peterson’s The Message has helped me countless times look at familiar Scripture texts with new eyes. Again and again I have been deeply impacted by the truth of Scripture revealed in fresh and relevant ways, including his translation of Philippians 4:4-9.

The fine magazine Christianity Today has a recent article titled, Eugene Peterson has Completed His “Long Obedience in the Same Direction,” that commemorates the death of this great Christian leader. I have found the description of his final days deeply moving.

A fellow author wrote, “My dear friend and pastor Eugene Peterson has died this morning. The lantern is out, but the joy he carried with him to his final breaths endures. Eugene is now with the Triune God he has loved his entire life. Memory eternal.”
His family released a statement on his final, joyful days earthside: “During the previous days, it was apparent that he was navigating the thin and sacred space between earth and heaven. We overheard him speaking to people we can only presume were welcoming him into paradise ... Among his final words were, ‘Let’s go.’ And his joy: my, oh my; the man remained joyful right up to his blessed end, smiling frequently. In such moments it’s best for all mortal flesh to keep silence. But if you have to say something, say this: ‘Holy, Holy, Holy’.”

As we study Anxious for Nothing together, it is fascinating to read that Eugene Peterson was not afraid to die, finding conversation with those nearing the kingdom to be among the best he ever had. He knew that people who have lived a good life and have embraced their faith are not afraid. Over the years of his ministry, he became a “shepherd’s shepherd” – a pastoral writer who aimed to keep Christian pastors and leaders grounded in “robust biblical theology amidst the din of shallow preaching.”

His influence is legendary. U2 leader Bono wrote, “I discovered Eugene Peterson’s The Message through the Psalms. In the dressing room before a show, we would read them as a band, then walk out into arenas and stadiums, the words igniting us, inspiring us.” Hillsong Church founder Brian Houston said, “God has used your exceptional writing skills to deepen and revitalize the spiritual lives of many. And God has used the fruit of your pen to deeply influence me.”

In one of his last books, As Kingfishers Catch Fire, Peterson wrote these words, entirely important to us as we seek to rejoice in the Lord always: “The story of our faith, our very existence, begins and ends with joy. Joy at the beginning, joy at the end, joy everywhere in between. Joy is God’s creation and gift. No authentic biblical faith is conceivable that is not permeated with it.”

In this regard we are all a work in progress. But we sure can be inspired and encouraged by the shining example of good people like Eugene Peterson. Praise God!

Jim

Less Fret, More Faith
By Pastor Jan Fillmore

As I write this on Oct. 28, the events of our nation and in my own life have made me realize how important our all-church book study of Max Lucado’s “Anxious for Nothing” and Philippians 4: 6 - 7 (below, NKJV) truly are:

Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

“No man [or woman] ever sank under the burden of the day. It’s when tomorrow’s burden is added to the burden of today that the weight is more than a man [or woman] can bear. Never load yourselves so, friends. If you find yourselves so loaded, at least remember this: it is your own doing, not God’s. He begs you to leave the future to Him and to mind the present.”

MacDonald, who died in 1905, never experienced what our world is experiencing, but he did experience the growth and the growing pains of the late 1800s, characterized by industrialization and immigration.

As we wrap up our five-week “Anxious for Nothing” study on Nov. 13, Pastor Jim and I look forward to hearing about how this study has impacted your life. Let us know … give us a call or an email, or stop us on Sunday morning! We value your thoughts.
I thank those LifeGroups who have sent us pictures of their meetings.

Coming Up: In December, we will begin an Advent study based on Rev. Adam Hamilton’s book “The Journey: Walking the Road to Bethlehem.” Hamilton is lead pastor of the largest United Methodist Church in the United States, the Church of the Resurrection in Leawood, Kansas. The book (regular or larger print) will be available for advance purchase in our Bookstore. See Linda Smith in the Bookstore to order your personal copy or copies for your LifeGroup.

Giving thanks for you and for the blessings of our LifeGroups,

Pastor Jan
News 5 Spotlights Rowland: October was National Bullying Prevention Month and on Oct. 11, Channel 5 visited Rowland Elementary as part of a segment spotlighting school-wide anti-bullying programs.

According to the South Euclid Lyndhurst Schools web site, “The implementation of the Conscious Discipline and Making a Difference programs have brought visible results and helped to create a positive building-wide culture at Rowland Elementary.

“Conscious Discipline utilizes daily class meetings, friendly greetings and emphasizes making connections and building relationships with students. In addition, students are encouraged to communicate how they feel and learn positive ways to deal with conflict.

“Through a partnership with Making a Difference Consulting, the South Euclid Lyndhurst Schools has implemented the Making a Difference program for the past three years. The initiative features monthly parent workshops, social skills groups, individual counseling and school-wide assemblies to help students communicate in a positive manner.” Congratulations to our Rowland staff!
Apples … To Our Students: With the help of Bart and Janet Alcorn of Eddy’s Fruit Farm, we continue to supply the first-graders in Karen Hadden’s class at Adrian Elementary School with apple slices for their morning snack. Karen writes: “I cannot thank you enough for keeping the supply of apples coming. Really and truly, my kids love them, and they really help with the grum-bellies!”

Our Tutors Are Back: Phyllis Wright is one of our amazing tutors, helping out each Thursday in Christy Grande’s second-grade classroom at Rowland. This is Phyllis’ sixth year at Rowland, and her third year with this second grade class. Phyllis says being with the students is the highlight of her week!

Coming Up: This month, we’ll be volunteering during the PTA Book Fair on Nov. 12-16, helping students pick out books for reading. On the evening of Thursday, Nov. 15, we’ll sponsor a Pie/Pastry Fellowship for our Rowland staff as they begin Parent-Teacher Conferences. Interested in helping? Contact Pastor Jan at jan@mayfieldchurch.org.
We are planning a celebration for “All Saints Day” on Sunday, Nov. 4. All Saints Day comes six months after Easter in the Christian calendar. It is a day for remembering those in our families and faith community who left us for the loving arms of Jesus during this past year, but who continue to be present with us in our hearts.

All Saints Day has a long history in the Christian Church. It is a celebration that helps us remember that our lives, our faith, and our actions are not simply our own creations. Instead, they are dependent on all we have been given by the family members and friends who came before us— their stories, their love, their influence, and their witness.

During our 11 AM worship service on Nov. 4, we will read names, light candles, and remember the lives of those who graced our path and journeyed with us as a gift from God.

We will be recognizing veterans in our congregation on Veterans Day Sunday, Nov. 11.

Veterans, you’re invited to stay after worship for a free breakfast to thank you for your services!

Dr. Kenneth Hauck began Stephen Ministry out of a real need. He had completed seminary and graduate school in clinical psychology and looked forward to ministering to the needs of hurting people in his congregation. However, reality soon proved to him that he was only one person with 24 hours a day and the needs of the members of his congregation were large. He decided to equip lay caregivers in his church with the skills needed to minister to others. The program was so successful, that in 1975 Dr. Hauck and his wife traveled to other congregations to teach them how to establish Stephen Ministry programs. It was effective but not efficient so in 1978 they began to train Stephen Leaders in regional workshops who would return to their home congregations to recruit, train, and supervise their own Stephen Ministers. Since then, Stephen Ministries in St. Louis has specialized in “training the trainers” through the Stephen Series ministry system.

Since Stephen Ministries was founded in 1975:

- More than 13,000 congregations have enrolled in the Stephen Series.
- Stephen Ministry is found in congregations from more than 170 Christian denominations, across the U.S. and Canada and in 30 other countries.
- Hundreds of congregations have continued their Stephen Ministry program for 20 or even 30 years. It's built to last!
- More than 75,000 pastors and lay leaders from those congregations have been equipped at Leader’s Training Courses. Stephen Leaders establish and direct Stephen Ministry in a congregation.
- More than 600,000 laypeople have received Stephen Minister training. Stephen Ministers are congregation members trained by Stephen Leaders to offer high-quality, one-to-one Christian care to people going through tough times.
- More than one-and-a-half-million people have had a Stephen Minister to walk with them, providing one-to-one Christian care during tough times.

Mayfield United Methodist Church is one of those 13,000-plus congregations with a Stephen Ministry program ready to serve those within and beyond our church doors.

If you or someone you know would like more information about receiving the services of a Stephen Minister, contact the referral coordinator, Joyce Gordon, at 216-570-3767 or joytgordon@roadrunner.com.

FROM THE HEART

Bible Memory Verse of the Month:

“Give thanks to the Lord for He is good!” I Chronicles 16:34

We are so amazed how quickly this school year is passing by! It is unbelievable that the holidays are upon us. It is true that time flies when you’re having fun and we definitely have fun learning at Heartland.

November’s Faith Connections:

Jesus told many stories - Letter J, Number 10
Kids in the Kitchen - Letter K, Number 11
I Like… - Letter L, Number 12
Giving Thanks to God - Thanksgiving Week
Make Merry Music for Messiah - Letter M, Number 13

One of our staff devotionals recently talked about the word enthusiasm. At the beginning of every school year we find ourselves filled with excitement and anticipation. Then as the weeks of school pass by our enthusiasm wanes. Did you know the word enthusiasm comes from a Greek phrase meaning ‘God within’? The passion and energy for everyday trials must come from the Lord, because He’s the only limitless Source. We were designed to desire God within us to function at our peak. So, we need to think of ourselves as a sponge. Just as a sponge must be filled with water to be effective, so we must be filled with the living water of God. Satiated. We can’t just soak up enough for ourselves – we must be filled to overflowing. It’s the only way we’ll have enough to spread to all of those around us.

This Thanksgiving make sure to you are soaked to overflowing with God’s enthusiasm for life and for Him.

God Bless all of you and have a very Happy Thanksgiving! If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call the Heartland office at 440-729-4006 Ext. 116 or email heartland@mayfieldchurch.org.
